Federal leaders will join States and providers as they talk about the importance of framework harmonization from our nation’s capital to Main Street. While we often think of framework disharmonization as an issue that applies to the rules and regs that flow from the federal level to states and local governments, the reality for providers is that framework dis-harmonization exists at similar disparities between states and local jurisdictions. Hear important updates on the work of the StateRAMP CJIS Task Force and recommendations to help streamline compliance. This expert panel will discuss how the Office of the National Cyber Director is approaching framework harmonization goals through the National Cybersecurity Strategy. |

In the Fall of 2022, a cyberattack through a third-party supplier took a reported 55 (out of 75) Arkansas counties offline and sparked conversation at all levels of government that resulted in new legislation, updated policies and improved coordination needed to drive change.
The session will begin with an interview of the Arkansas leaders implementing that change management. The panel will then discuss experiences with Whole of State initiatives and the opportunities it brings for greater partnerships across communities and with industry.

| 1:20-2:10 pm  | Panel Session: Important Role Procurement Plays in Protecting our Citizens
|               | Jaime Schorr [MODERATOR]
|               | Jessica Van Eerde [SPEAKER]
|               | Ted Cotterill [PANELIST]
|               | Meredith Ward [PANELIST]
|               | Dugan Petty [PANELIST]
|               | Marlin McFate [PANELIST]
|               | “Begin as you mean to go” is a reminder that the choices we make today become our legacy in the long-term. Procurement is where it starts for defining the relationship between public and private sectors. The requirements we set today define how we will work together and that includes cyber security and risk management. This session will focus on shared best practices for procurement, leveraging enterprise architecture standards, and a deeper understanding of the role procurement plays in protecting our citizens. |
| 2:10-2:35 pm  | Break for Refreshments and Vendor Exhibits             |
| 2:35-2:55 pm  | Keynote: Remembering our Why–The Story of a Real-World Cyber Attack
|               | Jim Corns [SPEAKER]
|               | Hear the harrowing details from the leader who managed the attack and what they learned from the experience. Protecting our citizens and way of life requires public sector leaders and industry to come together in this mission. We invite you to hear this story as it serves as a reminder for each of us: to remember our why. |
